

"Artificial Intelligence in Orthodontics: Are We Entering a New Normal?"

This lecture introduces the new technologies in orthodontics, comparing them with traditional gold standards to highlight how AI is becoming part of everyday practice. We will explore how companies are leveraging data to build predictive models and enhance