When designed and implemented effectively, online learning holds huge potential for learning. Nevertheless, many online courses that we see nowadays are not designed based on sound instructional design and adult learning principles. ! Will it work better if I move those modules online?

! Will I redesign only a few modules or the entire course for online delivery?

! Don't literally translate face-to-face content online. One pitfall in online learning design is that some instructors simply move the content

they need, they might feel frustrated. It is a good idea to keep things organized by linking them to a central location for ease of access. For instance, you can put readings and viewings, assignments, and supplementary resources all within a module on the Modules/Lessons page in your learning management system. Students can easily access what they need for that
