

D6- Pediatrics

D7- Periodontics

D8- Restorative dentistry

- D a- Cariology/Caries risk assessment
- D b- Dental anatomy and morphology
- D c- Dental material
- D d- Digital dentistry
- D e- Fixed prosthodontics
- D f- Implant dentistry
- D g- Occlusion
- D h- Operative dentistry
- D i- Removable prosthodontics

D9- Behavioral Skills

- D a- Cultural competency
- D b- Ethics
- D c- Interprofessional education
- D d- Professionalism
- D e- Practice management
- D f- Self-care/wellness

D10- EBD/ Epidemiology/Applied research methodology

D10a- Quality assurance

D11- Statistics/Informatics

D12- Community/Public Health

D12a- Social determinants of health

D13- Preventive Medicine and Dentistry

D14- Pain management/ Local anesthesia

S - Establish and maintain trust and rapport with all stakeholders in patient care. Demonstrate empathy.

S - Manage the oral health care needs of pediatric, adolescent and adult patients, including geriatric patients and patients with complex needs.

S₁₀- Perform comprehensive diagnostic evaluations and risk assessment on patients at all stages of life.

S₁₁- Obtain, select, and interpret images and tests necessary for accurate differential diagnoses and correlate them with clinical findings.

S₁₂- Formulate and present comprehensive, sequenced treatment plans and prognoses in

S1 - Practice, delegate, or refer within the scope of practice and in alignment with patient needs, values, and expectations.

S1 - Apply current principles of business, financial and human resource management to lead the oral health care team.

S20- Evaluate contemporary and emerging models of oral healthcare delivery, understand